Dear resident,

The fun truly never seems to end in Sun City Hilton Head as the community's Chartered Clubs and Registered Community Groups continue to grow and thrive. They allow residents to be social, meet friends, play sports, give back to the greater good and most importantly, enjoy the lifestyle that Sun City has to offer.

The Club Catalog began in 2020 when social distancing restrictions required the Community Association to cancel the popular annual Club Fair. This event is where many clubs and groups recruit new members and renew memberships. The Lifestyle Services and Communication departments decided to publish a Club Catalog to help get the word out about all of the community's different clubs and groups. Even when the Club Fair and other events returned, the Club Catalog became an annual publication.

Since its introduction, though, the costs associated with printing and distributing the Club Catalog have risen significantly. As a result, this issue will be available online only this year at www.SunCityHiltonHead.org. Feel free to download this issue to your computer or print it at home to reference year-round.

Despite this change, the Club Catalog contains all the same great information residents have come to find helpful when navigating the club and group scene. As always, this edition includes the most up-to-date directory of Sun City's clubs and groups, as well as contact information for officers, membership instructions and organization descriptions. Turn to the back of this issue to find additional resources and information pertaining to clubs and groups in Sun City.

We hope you find something in these pages that piques your interest and inspires you to pursue new activities that help fulfill your active adult lifestyle. For more information about clubs and groups, please contact Lifestyle Services at (843) 705-4027.

Sincerely,

Kayla O'Quinn Holmes
Director of Lifestyle Services

In less than an hour, they listen to three member presentations, vote, and then each writes a $100 tax-deductible check directly to the selected charity. By pooling resources, the group becomes a beacon of light and hope for many locals in need. Becoming a member is simple and hassle-free – no committee involvement, solicitation or sales activity. Come to observe or join this philanthropic group. Meetings: 5 p.m. quarterly in Pinckney Hall. Registration and socializing starts at 4:30 p.m. See details in SunSations.

These events include community fundraisers, fun social outings, special dining events, spring and fall ladies' and men's golf outings, as well as our annual events such as our chili cook-off, luau/pool party, Oktoberfest and holiday parties. Of course, the Buckeye Group would not be complete without lots of opportunities to cheer on the Buckeyes and other teams from Ohio. O-H-I-O!

We help support over 700 hungry schoolchildren by supplementing families' food budgets with grocery vouchers and monthly 25-pound food boxes. Shelf-stable items such as cereal, pasta, soup, canned fruit and vegetables are included in these boxes which are packed by our volunteers. The boxes are delivered to participating schools where they are picked up by family members. The annual Change 4 Change campaign throughout Sun City each spring helps fund this effort.

From our beginnings in 2000, the LCWRT has strived to further knowledge about the Civil War, preservation of battlefields and raise general awareness of the war here in the Lowcountry. We meet six times a year (October through April), usually the fourth Wednesday of the month and usually at Hidden Cypress. We bring in nationally known and local historians to talk on a wide variety of topics, from battles to political influences to reenactors to medicine to women in the war. About 60 members attend each meeting. Our website is www.lcwrt.squarespace.com.
